Immediate Release

Trigiani Named President-Elect of Virginia Bar Association

Richmond, VA (January 31, 2010) . . . The Virginia Bar Association (VBA) has named Lucia Anna "Pia" Trigiani as 2010 president-elect during the association's annual meeting held on Jan. 23 in Williamsburg, VA. The VBA is a statewide, voluntary professional organization with more than 5,500 lawyers and judges as members.

Trigiani, a real estate attorney and principal with the MercerTrigiani law firm, is a leading authority on common interest ownership community associations. She has held senior leadership positions with the national and local organizations of the Community Association Institute (CAI). She has chaired CAI's Government and Public Affairs Committee and served as 2000 president of the Washington Metropolitan Chapter of CAI. Currently, she chairs the Virginia Common Interest Community Board responsible for licensing and certifying common interest community managers.

Also, Trigiani has chaired the Real Estate Section of the VBA, served on the VBA Administrative Law Section Council and served as 2009 chair of the VBA Board of Governors. A graduate of Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, she received her law degree from the T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond in 1983.
