IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MercerTrigiani Attorneys Receive Industry Awards

Alexandria, VA (November 12, 2012) . . . The Washington Metropolitan Chapter of Community Associations Institute (WMCCA) recently recognized Jeremy R. Moss and Sarah E. Tozer, two real estate attorneys with MercerTrigiani law firm, for their outstanding volunteer contributions and leadership skills.

- Moss received the Public Advocate Award for Virginia for serving as an outstanding advocate of legislative issues on behalf of the Community Associations Institute (CAI) and WMCCAI. He was recognized for his consistent service to the Virginia Legislative Committee and the Virginia Legislative Action Committee (VLAC). He devoted substantial time and effort in updating the Chapter and the VLAC on 2012 legislative action and prepared a number of substantive advocacy pieces that guided legislators and CAI volunteers in advocating on behalf of the community association industry.

Moss received his law degree in 2007 from the Columbus School of Law of The Catholic University of America and is a 2003 graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

- Tozer received the 2012 Rising Star award for her work on the Quorum Editorial Committee and contributions to the WMCCAI's monthly magazine. The award is presented annually to an active member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership skills. As a committee member, she planned editorial content, authored a number of articles, and recruited expert writers to submit articles.

Tozer is a 2004 graduate of Duquesne University and received her law degree in 2010 from the Columbus School of Law of the Catholic University of America.
